

2016-2018 Slate of Officers

Tom McNeil - President

B.A. Sewanee, The University of the South

J.D. Nashville School of Law

Professional Experience

- President & CEO, Union Planters Bank of Nashville Trust Department General Counsel
- Real Estate Development: Horseshoe Bend Community, Buckhead Place Apartments

Professional Licenses

- Principal Broker, McNeil & Company Real Estate Services
- Licensed to practice law in Tennessee
- Tennessee Supreme Court Listed Rule 31 General-Civil Mediator

Memberships

- Tennessee & National Association of Realtors
- Greater Nashville Association of Realtors (Former Chair: Professional Standards, Grievance and Arbitration Committee)
- Tennessee and Nashville Bar Associations (Member: Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee)
- Association For The Preservation of Tennessee Antiquities

A.J. Northrup - Vice President

A.J. Northrop is the current Memphis Chapter president with the Association for the Preservation of Tennessee Antiquities. In this role, Mr. Northrop has oversight of all matters relating to the management of the Memphis Chapter and the Woodruff-Fontaine House Museum, its officers and staff along with presiding at all meetings of the Executive Committee, the Board of Directors, and the membership; serves as ex-officio member of all committees except the two nominating committees. And, also provides reports to the state organization of the APTA. Additionally, Mr. Northrop serves the Association board of directors as member at large.

As a lifelong Tennessean, Mr. Northrop understands the importance and need for preserving historic state properties and heritage. The opportunities are limitless and keeping all historic properties safe and well managed with responsible leadership are at his highest priority.

Cel Franklin - Secretary

B.S. and M.Ed. in Special Education from Vanderbilt University. Taught in Atlanta, Georgia, Clark Air Base, Phillipines, Kadena Air Base, Okinawa and Metro Nashville Public Schools in Nashville Tennessee. Currently administers services for students in Homebound and Private Schools for MNPS. Community involvement in French Lick Daughters of American Revolution, Captain John S. Donelson United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter (current President), APTA recording secretary, Alpha Delta Kappa Teaching Sorority (current President) Phi Delta Kappa, and Treasurer of Council for Exceptional Children for Tennessee.

Ellis Simmons - Treasurer

Senior Executive with twenty-eight years of diverse experience in the financial services industry with expertise and a consistent record of exceeding sales and financial goals, customer satisfaction targets and operational objectives.

INSBank, Nashville, TN

Senior Vice-President, Commercial Loan Officer

Responsible for new business development of commercial banking accounts including loans and related deposit and treasury management products for businesses and high net worth individuals within the Tennessee and Kentucky area.

- Create pipeline of prospects, make sales calls, conduct credit analysis, pricing and fee strategy analysis and client portfolio maintenance.
- Develop customer relationships to provide the appropriate financial products and services to meet existing and future needs including treasury management, wealth management, trust and mortgage products.
- Manage $85 million loan and $15 million deposit portfolio.
- Generated $2 million in USDA fees in three years.
- Exceeded loan, deposit and profitability goals for three years.
- Exceeded loan portfolio quality goals including past dues %'s, documentation exceptions and loan grading.
- COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT
- Green Hills YMCA- Current Board Member
- Community Housing Partnership of Williamson County - Past Board Member
- United Way OF Williamson County - Past Board Member
- Friends of Children's Hospital – Past Board Member

B.A. University of the South

Kevin Norwood

Member

Cumberland Law Group, LLPC

2002 – Present (14 years)

Corporate Law; Securities; Venture Capital; Emerging Businesses; Insurance and Administrative Law; Health Law; Medical Devices; Technology. General Counsel to Windsor Health Group, Inc., a Medicare Advantage insurance holding company, 2000 to 2010. General Counsel to VI MedRx, LLC, a medical device company; Unity Physician Partners, Inc.; which bridges behavioral health and primary care services; and SertintyONE Corporation, developer of the SertintyONE data security solution.

Lead counsel:

Acquisition of TennCare HMO, successful application to operate Medicare Advantage plan, successive rounds of private equity and bank financings, provider contracting, regulatory work, ultimate sale of holding company to multi-national corporation..

Acquisition of behavioral health facility.

Acquisition of rural hospital and syndication of ownership.

Negotiation of joint venture between major non-profit behavioral health organization and for-profit private equity backed enterprise for development of health homes to provide co-located behavioral and medical health services.

Organization of off-shore medical device development company.

Sale of medical device to multi-national corporation.

Acquisition of internet and phone based transaction software.

Licensing of data security software for market launch.

Negotiation of business process outsourcing contract with multi-national consulting firm.

Private equity and bank financings for numerous clients.

Counselor and advisor, bringing creativity and strategic thinking to the intersection of law and business for more than thirty-five years.

Experience includes taking companies from startup through private equity and bank financings, the cycles of business growth, development, and strategic acquisitions, onward to initial public offering or exit by sale or merger.

Industry experience includes biotechnology, medical devices, health care services (hospitals, health care systems, outpatient services, physical therapy, managed care, behavioral health), high tech, insurance, investment banking, intellectual property, venture capital, and real estate development.

Leigh Ann Gardner

Leigh Ann Gardner is the Heritage Area Interpretative Specialist for the Tennessee Civil War National Heritage Area, administered by the Center for Historic preservation at Middle Tennessee State University. In her current position, she oversees operations at the Heritage Center of Murfreesboro and Rutherford County as well as administers projects for the Heritage Area. Gardner works on heritage development plans, exhibit planning, and interpretation. Gardner also worked a field researcher for "Trials and Triumphs: Tennesseans' Search for Citizenship, Community, and Opportunity," a digital collection focused on the period of Jim Crow segregation in Tennessee.

Gardner received her B.A. in History from Mississippi University for Women. She received her M.A. in Public History from Middle Tennessee State University. Her thesis entitled "The African American Presence at the Tipton-Haynes State Historic Site, 1784-1900," explores the presence of African Americans at the Tipton-Haynes farm and how the historic site has interpreted that presence. Her research interests include African American history and Tennessee history. Her article, "To Care for the Sick and Bury the Dead: Murfreesboro's African American Benevolent Groups," was published in the Tennessee Historical Quarterly in 2014.

Tim Walker

Bachelor of Architecture, UT Knoxville
Masters of Public Service Administration, Cumberland University

Worked for two Nashville architecture firms, Orr Houk Architects and R. Chris Magill Architects, before coming on as a staff member for the Metro Historical Commission (MHC) and Metro Historic Zoning Commission (MHZC) in 1996. Became Historic Zoning Administrator for the MHZC in 2001. Became interim director of both commissions in 2008. Hired as Executive Director in 2009, my current role.

Currently serve in ex-officio capacity on several boards including:

Nashville City Cemetery Association
Friends of Fort Negley
Friends of Kellytown
Friends of Two Rivers Mansion
Historic Nashville, Inc.

Currently serve the board of The District (supports downtown's Second Avenue, Broadway, and Printers Alley Historic Districts. Just rolled off the board of Belmont Mansion after serving 6 years or two terms

Have been a presenter at the TN Preservation Trust Conference several times. Have also presented at conferences of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, Traditional Building and National Alliance of Preservation Commissions.

Mickey Granger

Mickey has served on many boards in the community, the Tourism Association of Southwest Tennessee as Treasurer and Two terms on the Jackson Downtown Development Corporation. He was also a member of the board of directors of The Bank of Friendship and served for many years.

He has restored several homes on East Main Street, a National Register Historic District in Jackson. In 1981, he was instrumental in forming the Preservation of East Main Street and Surroundings neighborhood association which is still active and strong today.